

About us:

Established in 1949 Reserve Bank of India Officers' Association (RBIOA) and is the largest and only Association representing officers (DR & Merit Channel) of all grades from Grade A to Executive Director. RBIOA is also the only fully democratic Association where Office bearers and members of General Council and Central Committee are elected as per the rules provided in the constitution of RBIOA. The General Secretary is the Chief Executive and Principal Spokesperson of the Association (Rule 18.1).

Article 3 of the RBIOA Constitution and Rules provides the objects of the Association as follows:

- (i) To encourage and foster the ideal of service and to promote fellowship among the officers and to take such steps as are necessary to improve the professional knowledge and expertise of the officer fraternity as a whole with a view to enabling the Bank to discharge the obligations to the nation laid on it under the various statutes;
- (ii) To promote social, cultural and intellectual fellowship among the officers and other staff of the Bank;
- (iii) To establish and maintain a link between the Bank's officers and its Administration;
- (iv) To promote and safeguard the interests of officers of the Bank including securing improvements in any or all of their service conditions;
- (v) To institute welfare measures for the benefit of members and their families;
- (vi) To establish and maintain liaison with the Associations I Unions of various categories of officers and staff with the Bank or with the Associations or officers of other banks and other institutions and to promote a common bond of fellowship among them;
- (vii) To publish journals, bulletins, notices etc., or to promote other forms of public relations incidental or conducive to securing the objects of the Association;
- (viii) To raise funds by subscriptions or otherwise, including borrowings towards securing the objectives as set out above;

(ix) To provide legal assistance to members in matters connected with their employment provided they are of common interest to officers; and initiate appropriate action as deemed fit and proper whenever considered necessary to protect the interest of the officers' community and image of the Association; and

(x) To generally do all things as are necessary and incidental to the attainment of the above objectives.